

Books

- OCR Classical Civilisation AS and A Level components 21 and 22 Greek Theatre and Imperial Image, Rob Hancock and James Renshaw (This is the textbook we use for this section of the course but it is not necessary to buy it)
- Sophocles: Oedipus Tyrannus (Cambridge Translations from Greek Drama)
- Euripides: Bacchae (Cambridge Translations from Greek Drama)
- Aristophanes: Frogs (Cambridge Translations from Greek Drama)
- OCR Classical Civilisation AS and A Level component 11 The World of the Hero, Sally Knights (This is the textbook we use for this section of the course but it is not necessary to buy it)
- OCR Classical Civilisation AS and A Level components 31 and 34 Greek Religion and Democracy and the Athenians (This is the textbook we use for this section of the course but it is not necessary to buy it)
- The Aeneid, Virgil
- The Iliad, Homer
- The Children of Jocasta by Natalie Haynes (Fiction)
- A Thousand Ships by Natalie Haynes (Fiction)
- Circle by Madeline Miller (Fiction)
- Mythos, Stephen Fry
- Heroes, Stephen Fry

Podcasts/Documentaries/Films

- Natalie Haynes Stands up for Classics podcast
- In our time Podcast - Look for any relating to the Ancient world or classical civilisations
- BBC Ancient Greece The Greatest Show on Earth - An excellent documentary covering both Greek Theatre and Athenian Democracy
  - The BBC's 'Troy: Fall of a City' is available on iPlayer and dramatizes the events of the Iliad
  - The film 'Troy' is also available on Netflix
  - Roman Empire - Documentary covering various Roman
    - Meet the Romans with Mary Beard (BBC iPlayer)

A-LEVEL CLASSICAL CIVILISATIONS
YEAR 11 TRANSITION RESOURCES