

GO
FURTHER
WITH...

Classical Civilisation

A-level

Introduction

Studying the classical civilisations of Ancient Rome and Greece is fascinating; we cover a wide range of themes from this period, including philosophy, religion, comedy, and tragedy. The course intends to expand students' knowledge of the ancient world in order to gain a better understanding of the modern.

If you are looking to combine an interest in History and English Literature, this could be the subject for you.

Why Classical Civilisation?

- A highly regarded A-Level which combines academic rigour with fascinating subject content, including insights into a different world of gods, heroes, empires and government.
- Supported by trips to museums, universities and theatres and an optional place on the department's biennial overseas residential trip.
- The opportunity to study diverse topics and sources, including both literature and visual/material culture, which will inspire and motivate learners to engage further with the classical world.
- The course covers the foundations of Western culture
 - The study of the oldest surviving works of western literature; the origins of democracy; the birth of theatre; art and artistry.

Any special requirements?

The study of Latin and Ancient Greek texts are all completed in English translation so no prior knowledge is required. However, a grade 5 in English Literature and/or History is desirable.

Scan for more details...

<https://www.st-christophers.org/sixth>

GO
FURTHER
WITH...

Classical Civilisation

A-level

Introduction

Studying the classical civilisations of Ancient Rome and Greece is fascinating; we cover a wide range of themes from this period, including philosophy, religion, comedy, and tragedy. The course intends to expand students' knowledge of the ancient world in order to gain a better understanding of the modern.

If you are looking to combine an interest in History and English Literature, this could be the subject for you.

Why Classical Civilisation?

- A highly regarded A-Level which combines academic rigour with fascinating subject content, including insights into a different world of gods, heroes, empires and government.
- Supported by trips to museums, universities and theatres and an optional place on the department's biennial overseas residential trip.
- The opportunity to study diverse topics and sources, including both literature and visual/material culture, which will inspire and motivate learners to engage further with the classical world.
- The course covers the foundations of Western culture
 - The study of the oldest surviving works of western literature; the origins of democracy; the birth of theatre; art and artistry.

Any special requirements?

The study of Latin and Ancient Greek texts are all completed in English translation so no prior knowledge is required. However, a grade 5 in English Literature and/or History is desirable.

Scan for more details...

<https://www.st-christophers.org/sixth>