

GO
FURTHER
WITH...

Theology, Philosophy & Ethics (Religious Studies)

A-level

Introduction

This is a rigorous, academic and traditional A-level course. Theology, Philosophy & Ethics (Religious Studies) represent some of the oldest academic disciplines and have their origins in antiquity. The subjects first studied at some of the country's earliest universities, such as Oxford and Cambridge, included theology and philosophy. This A-level course races through the thinkers' history; from the giants of Greek philosophical thought, such as Plato and Aristotle, to some of today's leading and contemporary theologians. As such, the course offers an unprecedented depth to scholarly research and a fascinating richness of thought on any given topic. We would love to help you to formulate your own thoughts to contribute to the debate.

Why Religious Studies?

- The study of Religion is more relevant to life in 21st Century UK than ever before in history.
- It is useful for any job that involves working with people. (Apart from a Lighthouse Keeper, try thinking of a job that does not involve working with people!)
- A-level Theology, Philosophy and Ethics (Religious Studies) equips the student to make informed choices about questions of destiny, origins and ultimate meaning to life - with reference to some of the most significant religious traditions in the world.
- It is really, really interesting! Understanding what is at the core of shared human experience, seeking to find answers to the 'big questions' in life and trying to understand what it is that makes people tick is a fascinating pursuit. Welcome to the world of A-level Religious Studies!

Any special requirements?

An open mind, a willing spirit and a teachable heart. There are no specific requirements in addition to the requirements for general admission set by St. Christopher's Sixth Form. GCSE RS is not an essential pre-requisite.

Scan for more details...

<https://www.st-christophers.org/sixth>

GO
FURTHER
WITH...

Theology, Philosophy & Ethics (Religious Studies)

A-level

Introduction

This is a rigorous, academic and traditional A-level course. Theology, Philosophy & Ethics (Religious Studies) represent some of the oldest academic disciplines and have their origins in antiquity. The subjects first studied at some of the country's earliest universities, such as Oxford and Cambridge, included theology and philosophy. This A-level course races through the thinkers' history; from the giants of Greek philosophical thought, such as Plato and Aristotle, to some of today's leading and contemporary theologians. As such, the course offers an unprecedented depth to scholarly research and a fascinating richness of thought on any given topic. We would love to help you to formulate your own thoughts to contribute to the debate.

Why Religious Studies?

- The study of Religion is more relevant to life in 21st Century UK than ever before in history.
- It is useful for any job that involves working with people. (Apart from a Lighthouse Keeper, try thinking of a job that does not involve working with people!)
- A-level Theology, Philosophy and Ethics (Religious Studies) equips the student to make informed choices about questions of destiny, origins and ultimate meaning to life - with reference to some of the most significant religious traditions in the world.
- It is really, really interesting! Understanding what is at the core of shared human experience, seeking to find answers to the 'big questions' in life and trying to understand what it is that makes people tick is a fascinating pursuit. Welcome to the world of A-level Religious Studies!

Any special requirements?

An open mind, a willing spirit and a teachable heart. There are no specific requirements in addition to the requirements for general admission set by St. Christopher's Sixth Form. GCSE RS is not an essential pre-requisite.

Scan for more details...

<https://www.st-christophers.org/sixth>